Sharon Anderson, back by popular demand, is holding one of our most sought after workshops.

This 3 day workshop will be ideal for beginners who want some technical expertise with a project, or want to come along and have some fun. Sharon also caters for those who have a little more experience. Colour and multiple registrations will be taught.

Sharon also caters for artists and art students who are looking to expand their printmaking experience. Do you need a folio for art school or do you want to experiment with a new printmaking medium?

Sharon has had many years experience in screenprinting so this workshop is worth participating in.

You will need to bring your own ideas, good paper, fabric and sense of fun.

Cost for course is $195 and includes materials fee to cover inks and screen use.
