arc Yinnar is an artist run initiative in central Gippsland, Victoria. In operation since 1982 arc is governed by a collective of management comprised of its membership who include local artists, educators and craftspeople. arc is a vital facility dedicated to supporting and promoting contemporary arts activities for artists in the Latrobe Valley and the wider Australian community.

GUIDELINES

The Biennial arc Yinnar Drawing Prize is open to drawings of a traditional, contemporary or innovative nature. Drawings are to be a unique work on paper or other suitable support and will be judged on their graphic qualities. Materials may include those used traditionally such as pencil, ink, charcoal, and contemporary media as an element of the work such as collage and watercolour will also be accepted.

Judging – independent judges for the awarding of prizes: Rodney Forbes, Acting Head of Centre, Gippsland Centre for Art and Design, Monash University Churchill; Claire Watson, Curator, Gippsland Art Gallery, Sale. The decisions made by the judging panel are final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Entries

Artists may enter up to two drawings for pre-selection. All entries must have been completed since January 1st, 2007 and must be the original work of the artist. Works may be framed or unframed. Maximum size limit of 2 square metres (e.g. 2 x 1m, 1.3 x 1.5m, or other configuration). Exception to this only would be installation works that include floor space.
